

Contents

Editor's Note	9
Islam: The New Enemy of Imperialism after the Political Capitulation of the Former USSR Niloufer Bhagwat	11
Crime Against Humanity and Not War: Making U.S. Safer at Home and Stopping Human Carnage Abroad Michael Ratner	28
Afghanistan and Self Defense John Quigley	38
What's Happening to International Law in Afghanistan? Roland Weyl	47
Bombing of Afghanistan is Illegal and Must Be Stopped Marjorie Cohn	51
The United States-Afghanistan Conflict and the Decline of International Law Robert Charvin	59
International Law: The Illegality of the War on Afghanistan Gail Davidson	66
Is the U.S. Bombing of Afghanistan Justified as Self-defense under International Law? Leslie M. Rose, LL.M.	72
The USA Patriot Act: What's So Patriotic about Trampling on the Bill of Rights? Nancy Chang	87

Une Conception Extensive de la Legitime Defense Contraire au droit International Prof. Olivier Corten et Francois Dubuisson	112
Establishing Precedents for Global Lawlessness: US Foreign Policy in the 21st Century Prof. Lennox S. Hinds	121
Appendices
International Association of Democratic Lawyers Condemns Terrorist Attacks in United States and the Situation Thereafter	140
National Lawyers Guild Resolution on the Illegal Bombings of Afghanistan	143

The views expressed in these articles are of the authors and may not necessarily represent the position of the Association.